

CARMEL HIGHLANDS

The best of both worlds with the majesty of Big Sur, yet only 10 miles to Carmel. This 5-acre ridge top mesa with a mostly new main home and a pleasant stroll to an existing guest-house has stunning ocean views. Softly sculptured series of valleys and ridges display dramatic light & shadow patterns throughout the day. This was a masterpiece location for world-renowned Big Sur architect Mickey Muennig, who has a genius for marrying the structure to the site. This is a brilliantly designed 5,000 sq ft contemporary house of glass, steel, stone and concrete has the utmost level of sophistication in use of these materials and state of the art technical applications.
